Sanjar Shri Alok

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) Whether India has become an attractive investment destination for foreign investors;

(b) If so, the details thereof along with investments made by the foreign investors, country-wise; and

(c) the other steps taken by the Government to boost foreign investments in India?

Answer

Minister of State (Finance) (Shri Arjun Ram Meghwal)

(a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The details country-wise investments made by the foreign investors in the last three years are at Annexure.

(c) Government has put in place a liberal, transparent and investor-friendly policy on Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) wherein most of the sectors are open to FDI under the automatic route. The Government reviews FDI policy on an ongoing basis and significant changes are made in the FDI policy regime, from time to time, to ensure that India remains increasingly attractive and investor-friendly investment destination. All such policy decisions are available on the website of Department of Industrial Policy & Promotion (DIPP) (www.dipp.nic.in). The Finance Minister has further announced a number of measures to encourage FDI in India in the Budget Speech 2016-17 (Para No. 85, 87 and Annex I of the speech). Recent steps taken by the Government to boost foreign investments in India are given below:
